

WEEK 7

Syntax Soloing Exercises

Syntax Soloing Exercises

Exercise 1

The endless medium run

Keep playing notes without stopping

Focus on a very small area of the fret board, then build from there

Exercise 2

Strumming the notes

A. Strum most of the strings while muting all but one

B. Pick one string continuously while muting and playing

Exercise 3

A duet with yourself

Create a simple fractal solo with a lot of space

Practice it until it's super easy

Play the fractal solo and then fill the spaces with improvised lines

Exercise 4

The B.B. King Method

Play the 12 bar blues and pay close attention to the chords

Let the chords define how you build your solo (Structure)

Be careful not to forget the actual exercise as you play!

Exercise 5

Play Jam Track & Solo

Play a simple very short riff and then a long section with just muted strokes

As you keep playing the riff, play the solo in between the riff as well

Focus: Keep the beat and the timing! (Play simple lines in the beginning)

If you play something that makes you lose the timing - then play that same thing over and over again until you can play and keep the timing at the same time.
